

Closures examples:

* Closures examples. Closures are one of the most important concepts in javascript.

*

* How closure works: An inner function has always access to the variables and parameters

* of its outer function, even after the outer function has returned.

HOW CLOSURES WORK

